

<sup>1-27-40</sup>
2 Spartanburg Herald - Jan. 28, 1940

THE SPARTANBURG HERALD, SPARTANBURG, S. C.

Group of Handsome Buildings on Winthrop College Campus

Three views on the campus of Winthrop college, largest women's college in the state, at Rock Hill. At the top, is the handsome new conservatory and auditorium, which was recently completed. One of the dormitories appears directly above. At the right, is a view of the tower of the administration building through the foliage of stately trees which dot the campus.

Winthrop Opened in 1886
With 20 Students; Total
Enrollment Now Is 1,725

Char. Obs. 2-16-41
The cornerstone of Winthrop college, in Rock Hill, was laid on Saturday, May 12, 1894. The guests and participants in the ceremony included Governor Benjamin R. Tillman, Dr. Edward S. Joynes, of the South Carolina college, W. L. Roddey, and the Rev. Mr. Mercer, of Greenville.
Char. Obs. 2-16-1941

COVER -